Contending For The Constitution

Contending for the Constitution is a very good and informative introduction to the debate between Christians who are convinced that the providence of God was behind the men who constructed and wrote the Constitution, and rightfully so, and the secularists who are constantly attempting to interpret the Constitution secularly as though the authors

Oliver Ellsworth, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Charles Pinckney, Alexander Hamilton, and Thomas Jefferson all referred to the Constitution and its government as “miraculous,” “from heaven,” “the hand of God,” “a finger of that Almighty hand,” and “the superintending hand of Providence.” 6

Rus Walton identified it as “that Divinely-
