There's always a risk when revisiting the past that you won't be able to recreate what you once adored. When it comes to cars the risk is even greater, and when you're Jaguar and you're trying to evoke memories of a great 1960s classic the risk is beyond imagination. That was the way it was when Jaguar launched the S-Type in 1999 with much ado about the great Mark II that helped forge ...
